Thank you for continuing to protect our children

Shockingly, we have heard from fellow parents that there is still concern, because quantitatively (and 'volume'-etrically) the predominant input being received by the Board is "anti-mask".

We assure you: This disparity merely reflects that fact that nearly all reasonable people have moved on from giving you input on this topic – because they cannot even fathom that this is a question anymore.

Thank you for remaining undaunted in pursuing the only responsible course of action, which is to maintain the requirement for campus masking until ambient conditions reasonably and safely permit otherwise.

To do differently would be a base abdication of your most fundamental responsibility, which is to take all reasonable measures (which is not to say 'universally popular' ones) to ensure the health and safety of our children, teachers, and staff.

We sincerely appreciate you,
Matt & Julie Weingart
