Hello, my two daughters will be attending Croce Elementary School next year. I strongly support mask mandates for keeping our kids, teachers, and staff safe. There is not yet vaccine for children under 12, so masking up is one of the most important ways to protect them, especially from new, more contagious COVID-19 variants. I hope that, regardless of county, state, and national guidelines, LVJUSD will continue to set an example in keeping our children safe and . Thank you, Rachel Brumley
